Philippians

Philippians

What is the book of Philippians?

- The book of Philippians is a letter from Paul. Timothy helped Paul write it.
- Paul was in prison when he wrote this letter. It's thought that he wrote it around the year AD 61.

Who was Philippians written to?

- To the believers in the city of Philippi. Some were Jews but most were Gentiles.
- The letter was read out loud in the churches all around the area of Philippi.
- Followers of Jesus recognise that Philippians shares the truth about Jesus. It's for all people everywhere.

Why was Philippians written?

- To thank the Philippian believers for the money they had sent Paul through Epaphroditus.
- To tell the Philippian believers how Paul was doing while he was in prison.
- To oppose teachers who were teaching things that weren't true.
- Epaphroditus had become sick while visiting and helping Paul. When he was better, Paul sent him back to Philippi with this letter.
