Jude

Jude

What is the book of Jude?

- The book of Jude is a letter from Jesus' brother Jude.
- It's thought that Jude wrote it around the year AD 65.

Who was Jude written to?

- It isn't known exactly who Jude was written to. It's thought that it was to Jewish believers.
- The letters of 2 Peter and Jude are alike in many ways. Jude may have been writing to the same believers mentioned in 2 Peter. They were in the Roman territory now known as Turkey.
- Followers of Jesus recognise that Jude shares the truth about Jesus. It's for all people everywhere.

Why was Jude written?

- To warn the believers about false teachers.
- To encourage the believers to grow strong in the faith.
- To invite the false teachers to turn away from their sin.

Main ideas

- Holding on to true faith and refusing to believe teaching that is false.
- Reminding believers that ungodly people will be destroyed.
- Remaining in God's love.
