Matthew

What is the book of Matthew?

- The Gospel of Matthew is a collection of stories about Jesus. It includes Jesus' words and teachings. The stories and teachings were passed down by Jesus' followers who lived and worked with him.
- Matthew wrote these stories and teachings down. It's thought that he wrote them down between the years AD 60 and 65.

Who was Matthew written for?

- For Jews in Israel during Jesus' time.
- Followers of Jesus recognise that Matthew's gospel shares the truth about Jesus. It's for all people everywhere.

Why was Matthew written?

- To show Jews that Jesus is the King and Messiah God had promised to send.
- To urge Jews to believe in Jesus and follow him faithfully.

Main ideas

- Jesus' life and work fulfil Old Testament prophecies about the Messiah.
- Jesus has authority as a teacher. Matthew recorded Jesus' teachings in five long messages.
- Jesus is the King of the whole world.
- Jesus brought God's kingdom to earth.
